Any Recruit for Her Majesty's Army who shall desert before joining the Regiment or Corps for which he has enlisted shall, on being apprehended, and committed for such Desertion by any Justice of the Peace upon the Testimony of One or more Witnesses upon Oath, or upon his own Confession, forfeit his personal Bounty, and be liable to be transferred to any Regiment or Corps or Depôt nearest to the Place where he shall have been apprehended, or to any other Regiment or Corps to which Her Majesty may deem it more desirable that he should be transferred: Provided always, that such Deserters thus transferred shall not be liable to other Punishment for the Offence, or to any other Penalty except the Forfeiture of their personal Bounty.

Fraudulent Confession of Desertion.

37. Any Person who shall confess himself to be a Deserter from Her Majesty's Forces, or from Her Majesty's Indian Forces, or from the Embodied Militia, shall be liable to be taken before any Two Justices of the Peace acting for the County, District, City, Burgh, or Place where any such Person shall at any Time happen to be when he shall be brought before them, and on Proof that any such Confession as aforesaid was false, shall by the said Justices be adjudged to be punished, if in England as a Rogue and Vagabond, and if in Scotland or Ireland by Commitment to some Prison or House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months; and if, when such Person shall be brought before the said Justices, it shall be proved to their Satisfaction that such Confession has been made, but Evidence of the Truth or Falsehood of such Confession shall not at that Time be forthcoming, such Justices are hereby required to remand such Person in the Manner herein-before mentioned, and to transmit a Statement of the Case to the Secretary of State for War, with a Request to be informed whether such Person appears to belong or to have belonged to the Regiment or Corps from which he shall have so confessed himself to have deserted; and a Letter from the War Office in reply thereto, referring to such Statement, and purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Secretary of State for War, shall be admissible in Evidence against such Person, and shall be deemed to be legal Evidence of the Facts stated therein, and on the Receipt thereof the said Justices shall forthwith proceed to adjudicate upon the Case.

Recruits, when deemed to be enlisted.

43. Every Person who shall receive Enlisting Money in manner aforesaid, knowing it to be such, shall, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, upon such Receipt be deemed to be enlisted as a Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, and while he shall remain with the Recruiting Party shall be entitled to be billeted.

When Recruits to be taken before a Justice.

44. Every Person so enlisted as aforesaid shall within Ninety-six Hours (any intervening Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday not included), but not sooner than Twenty-four Hours after such Enlistment, appear, together with some Person employed in the Recruiting Service, before a Justice of the Peace, not being an Officer of the Army, in order that he may be attested by making the Declaration and taking the Oath herein-after mentioned, or may have an Opportunity of objecting to his Enlistment; and upon such Appearance, the Justice or some Person deputed by him shall fill up the Declaration set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, first asking the Recruit the Questions that are requisite for that Purpose, and cautioning him that if he should make any wilfully false Answer thereto, he will be liable to be punished as a Rogue and Vagabond.

Dissent and Relief from Enlistment.

45. When a Recruit upon appearing before a Justice for the Purposes aforesaid shall dissent from or object to his Enlistment, and shall satisfy the Justice that the same was effected in any respect irregularly, he shall forthwith discharge the Recruit absolutely, and shall report such Discharge to the Inspecting Inspecting Field Officer of the District, or in the Case of a Recruit enlisted at the Head Quarters or Depôt of a Regiment to the Officer commanding the same; but if the Recruit so dissenting shall not allege or shall not satisfy the Justice that the Enlistment was effected irregularly, nevertheless, upon Repayment of the Enlisting Money, and of any Sum received by him in respect of Pay, and of a further Sum of Twenty Shillings as Smart Money, he will be entitled to be discharged, and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice, and, after deducting therefrom One Shilling as the Fee for reporting the Payment to the Secretary of State for War and to the Inspecting Field Officer of the District, shall be paid over to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party who may demand the same; and the Justice who shall discharge any Recruit shall in every Case give a Certificate thereof, signed with his Hand, to the Recruit, specifying the Cause thereof.

46. If the Recruit on appearing before a Justice shall not dissent from his Enlistment, or dissenting shall within Twenty-four Hours return and declare that he is unable to pay the Sums mentioned in the last Section, the Justice shall require him to make the Declaration herein-before mentioned in the usual Manner, and shall then administer to him the Oath of Allegiance in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and when the Recruit shall have signed the said Declaration, and taken the said Oath, the Justice shall attest the same by his Signature, and shall deliver to the Recruiting Officer the Declaration so signed and attested; and the Fee for such Attestation, including the Declaration and Oath, shall be One Shilling and no more; and any Recruit shall, if he so wish, be furnished with a certified Copy of the above-mentioned Declaration by the Officer who finally approved of him for the Service.

Recruits, until they have been attested or received Pay not triable by Court-martial; but in certain Cases punishable as Rogues and Vagabonds.

47. No Recruit, unless he shall have been attested or shall have received Pay other than Enlisting Money, shall be liable to be tried by Court-martial; but if any Recruit, previously to his being attested, shall by means of any false Answer obtain Enlistment Money, or shall make any false Statement in his Declaration, or shall refuse to answer any Question duly authorized to be put to Recruits for the Purpose of filling up such Declaration, or shall refuse or neglect to go before a Justice for the Purposes aforesaid, or having dissented from his Enlistment, shall wilfully omit to return and pay such Money as aforesaid, in any of such Cases it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting for the County, District, City, Burgh, or Place where any such Recruit shall at any Time happen to be, to adjudge such Recruit, when he shall be brought before them, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to be punished accordingly, and if in Scotland or Ireland to be imprisoned with Hard Labour in any Prison or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months.

Attested Recruits triable in some Cases either before Two Justices or before a Court-martial.

48. Militiamen enlisting into Regular Forces.

50. If any Man while belonging to a Militia Regiment shall enlist in and be attested for Her Majesty's Army or Her Majesty's Indian Forces, he shall be liable to be tried before a Court-martial on a Charge for Desertion; but it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State for War, on the Confession thereof by such Militiaman, to order that in lieu of his being so tried he shall be subjected to a Stoppage of One Penny a Day of his Pay for Eighteen Calendar Months, to be applied as the Secretary of State for War shall direct, and further to determine whether such Man shall be returned to his Militia Regiment after such Sum shall have been made good, or shall be deemed to be a Soldier, in the same Manner as he would have been if he had not been a Militiaman at the Time of his Attestation, in which latter Case his Service as a Soldier shall not be reckoned for Pension until the Day on which his Engagement for the Militia would have expired: Provided that should the Regiment be within the United Kingdom the Secretary of State for War shall not make such Order without the Consent of the Commanding Officer of the Militia Regiment from which the Man shall have deserted.

CAP. IX.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Conveyance of Land for Charitable Uses.

[17th May 1861.]

9 G. 2. c. 36.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and intituled An Act to restrain the Disposition of Lands whereby the same become inalienable, it was amongst other things enacted, that no Lands or other Hereditaments should be given, granted, or anyways conveyed, settled, or charged for Charitable Uses, unless such Gift, Conveyance, or Settlement should be made by Deed indented and enrolled, sealed and delivered in the Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses Twelve Calendar Months at least before the Death of such Donor or Grantor, and should be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery within Six Calendar Months next after the Execution thereof, and unless the same should be made to take effect in possession for the Charitable Use intended immediately from the making thereof, and should be without any Power of Revocation, Reservation, Trust, Condition, Limitation, Clause, or Agreement whatsoever for the Benefit of the Donor or Grantor, or of any Person claiming under him: And whereas by another Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and intituled An Act for remedying a Defect in the Titles of Lands purchased for Charitable Purposes, it was enacted, that where any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments had been purchased for a full and valuable Consideration for Charitable Uses, and such Consideration had been actually paid, every Deed or other Assurance then already made for the Purpose of conveying or assuring the same should (subject as in the now-reciting Act mentioned) be as good and valid in all respects as if the several Formalities by the said first-recited Act prescribed had been duly observed and performed: And whereas Doubts have been entertained with reference to the Assurance for Charitable Uses of Hereditaments of Copyhold or Customary Tenure: And whereas it is expedient to make Provision for further remedying Defects and obviating Doubts and Difficulties, and as to Enrolment in regard to Deeds and Assurances of Hereditaments conveyed for Charitable Uses in manner herein-after provided:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

No future Deed, &c. for Charitable Uses to be void by reason of not being indented, or of specified Stipulations for Donor's Benefit, or (as to Copyholds) for Want of Deed.

1. No Deed or Assurance hereafter to be made for any Charitable Uses whatsoever of any Hereditaments of any Tenure whatsoever, or of any Estate or Interest therein, shall be deemed to be null and void within the Meaning of the first-recited Act by reason of such Deed or Assurance not being indented, or not purporting to be indented, nor by reason of such Deed or Assurance, or any Deed forming Part of the same Transaction, containing any Grant or Reservation of any Peppercorn or other nominal Rent, or of any Mines or Minerals, or Easement, or any Covenants or Provisions as to the Erection, Repair, Position, or Description of Buildings, the Formation or Repair of Streets or Roads, Drainage or Nuisances, or any Covenants or Provisions of the like Nature for the Use and Enjoyment as well of the Hereditaments comprised in such Deed or Assurance as of any other adjacent or neighbouring Hereditaments, or any Right of Entry on Nonpayment of any such Rent, or on Breach of any such Covenant or Provision, or any Stipulations of the like Nature for the Benefit of the Donor or Grantor, or of any Person or Persons claiming under him, nor (in the Case of any such Assurance of Hereditaments of Copyhold or Customary Tenure, or of any Estate or Interest therein,) by reason of the same not being made by Deed, nor in the Case of such Assurances made bonâ fide on a Sale for a full and valuable Consideration, by reason of such Consideration consisting wholly or partly of a Rent, Rentcharge, or other annual Payment reserved or made payable to the Vendor or to any other Person with or without a Right of Re-entry for Nonpayment thereof: Provided always, that in all Reservations authorized by this Act the Donor, Grantor, or Vendor shall reserve the same Benefits for his Representatives as for himself.

2. In

Where Charitable Uses of any future Deed, &c. is declared by any separate or other Deed, &c., Enrolment of such separate or other Deed, &c. requisite.

2. In all Cases where the Charitable Uses of any Deed or Assurance hereafter to be made for Conveyance of any Hereditaments for any Charitable Uses shall be declared by any separate or other Deed or Instrument, it shall not be necessary, for the Purposes of the first-recited Act or of this Act, to enrol such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance; but every such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance shall nevertheless be absolutely null and void unless such separate or other Deed or Instrument shall within Six Calendar Months next after the making or perfecting of such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance be enrolled in Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery, and such Enrolment as last aforesaid shall be deemed and treated for all Purposes of the first-recited Act and of this Act as if such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance had declared such Charitable Uses, and had been so enrolled as last aforesaid.

No past Deed, &c. for Charitable Uses upon valuable Consideration to be void for any Reason if enrolled in Chancery.

3. No Deed or Assurance heretofore made and under which Possession is now held for any Charitable Uses whatsoever of any Hereditaments of any Tenure whatsoever, or of any Estate or Interest therein, made really and bonâ fide for a full and valuable Consideration actually paid at or before the making or perfecting such Deed or Assurance, or reserved by way of Rent, Rentcharge, or other annual Payment, or partly paid at or before the making or perfecting such Deed or Assurance and partly reserved as aforesaid, without Fraud or Collusion, shall for any Reason whatever be deemed to be null and void within the Meaning of the first recited Act, if such Deed or Assurance was made to take effect in possession for the Charitable Uses intended immediately from the making thereof, and without any Power of Revocation, and has been at any Time prior to the passing of this Act, or shall be within Twelve Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act, enrolled in Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery.

Where Charitable Uses of past Deed, &c. not enrolled are declared by other Deed, &c., Enrolment of latter sufficient.

4. In all Cases where the Charitable Uses of any Deed or Assurance heretofore made for Conveyance of any Hereditaments for any Charitable Uses upon such full and valuable Consideration as aforesaid, and under which Possession is now held for such Uses, have been declared by any separate or other Deed or Instrument, and such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance has not been enrolled in Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery prior to the passing of this Act, but such separate or other Deed or Instrument has been so enrolled, such Enrolment shall be deemed and treated for all Purposes of the first-recited Act and of this Act as if such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance had declared such Charitable Uses, and had been so enrolled as last aforesaid; but if neither of such Deeds nor such Instrument has been so enrolled, then it shall not be necessary for the Purposes of the first-recited Act or of this Act to enrol such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance, but every such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance shall nevertheless be absolutely and to all Intents and Purposes null and void, unless such separate or other Deed or Instrument shall within Twelve Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act be so enrolled; and such Enrolment as last aforesaid shall be deemed and treated for all Purposes of the first-recited Act and of this Act as if such Deed or Assurance for Conveyance had declared such Charitable Uses, and had been so enrolled as last aforesaid.

Where neither Deed, &c. is enrolled, Enrolment of such separate or other Deed, &c. requisite.

Act not to invalidate certain Deeds, nor to extend to Deeds, &c. already avoided, or to pending Suits.

When Acknowledgment not necessary.

5. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to render null and void or in any Manner to affect or apply to any Deed already good and valid by virtue of the secondly-recited Act or of any other Act, or to give Effect to any Deed or Assurance heretofore made so far as such Deed or Assurance has already been avoided by any Suit at Law or in Equity, or by any other legal or equitable Means whatsoever, or to affect or prejudice any Suit at Law or in Equity actually commenced for avoiding any such Deed or Assurance, or for defeating the Charitable Uses in trust or for the Benefit of which such Deed or Assurance has been made; and no Deed, Assurance, or Instrument Thirty Years old, nor any Deed, Assurance, or Instrument heretofore executed, as to which it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Clerk of Enrolments in Chancery that the Acknowledgment thereof by the Grantor of the Lands or Hereditaments to which the same relates cannot be obtained within Twelve Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, shall for the Purposes of the first-recited Act or of this Act require Acknowledgment prior to Enrolment.

Act not to extend to Scotland or Ireland, nor to prejudice Two Universities, &c.

6. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the Disposition, Grant, or Settlement of any Property or Estate lying or being in Scotland or in Ireland, nor to make void any Dispositions made or to be made to or in trust for either of the Two Universities, or any of the Colleges or Houses of Learning within either of such Universities, in the first-recited Act mentioned, or to or in trust for the Colleges of Eton, Winchester, or Westminster, or any or either of them, for the better Support and Maintenance of Scholars only upon the Foundation of the said Colleges of Eton, Winchester, and Westminster.

CAP. XL.

An Act to make further Provision for the Management of Her Majesty's Forest of Dean, and of the Mines and Quarries therein and in the Hundred of Saint Briavels in the County of Gloucester. [22d July 1861.]

1 & 2 Vict. c. 43.

'WHEREAS the Commissioners appointed by the Act of the First and Second Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, intituled An Act for regulating the opening and working of Mines and Quarries in the Forest of Dean and Hundred of Saint Briavels in the County of Gloucester, duly made and published in pursuance of the Provisions in the said Act contained Three several Awards relating respectively to Coal Mines, Iron Mines, and Quarries, and dated respectively the Eighth Day of March, the Twentieth Day of July, and the Twenty-fourth Day of July, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-one, which Awards contained Rules and Regulations for working the Coal Mines, Iron Mines, and Quarries respectively within the said Forest and Hundred: And whereas by the said Act a Power of Appeal to Her Majesty in Council against the Awards to be made by the said Commissioners within Three Months from the making and publishing of such Awards was reserved to all Parties who might deem themselves aggrieved thereby, but no such Appeal was ever made against any of the said Awards, whereby the said Awards have now become absolute and indefeasible: And whereas both before and since the passing of the said Act the Gales of Coal and Iron in the said Forest and Hundred have been granted without any Limitation or Declaration of the Estate or Interest of the Galee, or Words of Inheritance, (but with Power under the Act to transfer the same,) and by reason of such Omission Doubts might be entertained whether Grants of Gales conferred more than Estates for Life or for some other partial Interest; but inasmuch as it has been commonly supposed that such Grants enured for the Benefit of the Galees, their Heirs and Assigns, so long as the Mine, Vein, or Work galed or granted remained unexhausted, and the Galees, their Heirs or Assigns, duly observed and performed the Conditions subject to which it was galed or granted, Her Majesty, being minded to quiet all Doubts on the Subject, is willing and has consented that the Rights

'or Interests of Galees should be defined and declared in accordance with the common Opinion afore-'said to the Extent and in manner herein-after contained: And whereas it is also expedient to alter 'and amend certain Parts of the said Act, and of the said Rules and Regulations made in pursuance 'thereof, and to make certain other Provisions with reference to the Mines and Quarries within the 'said Forest and Hundred:' Be it enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Declaration of the Interest conferred on a Galee by the Grant of a Gale.

1. The Grant of a Gale of Coal or Iron, or of a Stone Quarry, shall be deemed to have conferred and shall confer on the Galee, his Heirs and Assigns, a Licence to work the Mine, Vein, or Pit therein comprised, and such Grant shall be deemed to have conferred on the Grantee, his Heirs and Assigns, an Interest of the Nature of Real Estate, such Licence nevertheless being conditional on the Payment of all the Rents, Royalties, and other Dues from Time to Time payable to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in respect thereof, and the Observance and Performance of the several Enactments, Provisions, Rules, and Regulations for the Time being in force for the proper opening, working, Use, and Management of the Gale.

Conditions on which all Leases of Stone, Clay, or Sand are held.

2. Every Lease of Stone, Clay, or Sand granted or to be granted shall in like Manner be deemed to have been granted and to be granted conditionally on the Payment of all the Rents, Royalties, and other Dues from Time to Time payable to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in respect thereof, and the Observance and Performance of the several Enactments, Provisions, Rules, and Regulations for the Time being in force for the proper opening, working, Use, and Management thereof, and of the Covenants in the Lease contained (if any).

Act not to affect Right of Re-entry, &c.

3. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall enlarge or diminish, or in anyway affect any Right of Re-entry or Eviction or Liability to Forfeiture; but every Gale, Pit, Level, Work, and Quarry shall be subject in all respects to the same Liability to Forfeiture and Eviction, and no other, as if this Act had not been passed.

Person in actual Possession or Receipt of Proceeds of Gale to pay the Rent.

4. The Obligation to pay the Rent, Royalty, and other Dues from Time to Time becoming payable in respect of every Gale of Coal, Iron, or Stone granted or to be granted, and to observe and perform the several Enactments, Provisions, Rules, and Regulations for the Time being in force for the proper opening, working, Use, and Management of the same, shall from Time to Time be and become a personal Obligation on the Person for the Time being in the actual Possession or Receipt of the Proceeds of the Gale, whether as Owner thereof for an Estate of Freehold, or as Lessee or Under-lessee or otherwise howsoever, and every such Person making default in the Payment of any such Rent, Royalty, or Due, or in the Observance or Performance of any such Enactment, Provision, Rule, or Regulation as aforesaid, may be proceeded against by or on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in like Manner as if he had entered into a Covenant with Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to pay such Rent, Royalty, or other Due, and to observe and perform all such Enactments, Provisions, Rules, and Regulations: Provided nevertheless, that the Liability of every such Person shall cease and determine on the Cesser of such Title to the Possession or Receipt of Proceeds as aforesaid, except so far as shall relate to Rents, Royalties, or Payments due, and to Defaults in Observance or Performance of any of the said Enactments, Provisions, Rules, or Regulations committed before the Time of such Cesser of Title to Possession or Receipt of Proceeds: Provided also, that the Provisions in this Section shall be by way of Addition to and not substitutional for any Covenants, Conditions, or Stipulations in any Grant, and shall not extend to diminish or alter any Liabilities otherwise existing.

Empowering the Gaveller to sue in the County Court.

5. Any Rent, Royalty, and other Payment now due or which at any Time hereafter shall become due to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, under or in respect of the said Award, or any Gale, Lease, or Licence, or other Instrument granted or awarded under or in pursuance of the said Act or this Act, not exceeding in Amount the Sum of Fifty Pounds, or any Number of such Rents, Royalties, or other Payments due from the same Person or Persons in respect of any Number of such Gales, Leases, or Licences, not exceeding altogether the Amount aforesaid, may be sued for and recovered for and on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, by and in the Name of the Gaveller for the Time being in the County Court of the District within which such Rent, Royalty, or Payment, Rents, Royalties, or Payments, or any of them or any Part thereof, arose or became payable; and no Action commenced or continued by any Gaveller as aforesaid shall abate by reason of his Death, Removal, or Retirement, but shall and may be continued by and in the Name of his Successor for the Time being; and any Judgment for the Plaintiff in any such Action as aforesaid may be enforced by and in the Name of the Gaveller for the Time being, without any Process in the Nature of a Scire facias; and all Enactments, Rules, Orders, and Regulations for the Time being in force in respect of Proceedings in the County Courts shall and may, so far as the same shall be applicable to any such Action commenced or continued as aforesaid in the Name of any Gaveller, be applied to and observed in respect of any such Action.

' Whereas under the Twenty-seventh and Forty-seventh and other Sections of the said Act it is ' provided that in case the Amount and Nature of the new Galeage or other Rent, Royalty, or Tonnage ' Duty to become payable at the Expiration of every Term of Twenty-one Years as aforesaid should not ' be fixed and agreed on by the Parties as therein mentioned, the same should be referred to the Decision ' of an Arbitrator to be appointed by the Court of Exchequer in manner therein mentioned: And ' whereas it is probable that many of the Disputes which may arise as to the Amount and Nature of such

' new Rents, Royalties, or Dues as aforesaid, although relating to separate Gales, Quarries, or Works' ' may involve One common Principle only, and much unnecessary Delay and Expense might be avoided ' by referring all such Disputes at once to the same Arbitrator; and it is also advisable to facilitate the ' Appointment of such Arbitrator :' Be it enacted, That the Powers given by the said Act to the Court of Exchequer may be exercised by any Judge of the said Court at Chambers, and that any Number of Disputes relating to the Nature and Amount of such new Rents, Royalties, or Duties as aforesaid, to become payable in respect of any Number of separate Gales, Quarries, or Works may, with the Consent of all Parties, be referred together to the Decision of One Arbitrator to be appointed as aforesaid, and may be determined and disposed of by such Arbitrator in and by One and the same Award, or (if he shall think fit) in and by Two or more separate Awards; and it shall be lawful for the Arbitrator in and by his Award or Awards, or One of them, to apportion in such Proportions and Manner as he shall think fit that Moiety of his Remuneration and of the Costs and Expenses attending the Arbitration, which by the said Act is not to be borne by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, amongst the several Persons other than the said Commissioners who shall have concurred in such united Reference as aforesaid.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act to remove Doubts respecting the Authority of the Legislature of Queensland, and to annex certain Territories to the Colony of South Australia, and for other Purposes.

[22d July 1861.]

5 & 6 Vict. c. 76.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, it was enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent to be from Time to Time issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to define, as to

'to Her Majesty should seem fit, the Limits of the Colony of New South Wales, and to erect into a 'separate Colony or Colonies any Territories which then were or were reputed to be or thereafter might 'be comprised within the said Colony of New South Wales; provided always, that no Part of the 'Territories lying Southward of the Twenty-sixth Degree of South Latitude in the said Colony should 'by any such Letters Patent be detached from the said Colony: And whereas by a Bill passed by the 'Legislative Council of New South Wales, in the Seventeenth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act 'to confer a Constitution upon New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to Her Majesty, which said 'Act was, with certain Amendments, assented to by Her Majesty in Council under Authority of an 'Act of Parliament passed in the Session holden in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Year of Her 'said Majesty, intituled An Act to enable Her Majesty to assent to a Bill as amended of the Legislature 18 & 19 Vict. c. 54., Schedule 1. s. 46. 'of New South Wales to confer a Constitution upon New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to 'Her Majesty, it was provided that nothing in the said Bill contained should be deemed to prevent Her 'Majesty from altering the Boundary of New South Wales on the North in such Manner as to 'Her Majesty might seem fit, nor from detaching from the said Colony that Portion of the same which 'lies between the Western Boundary of South Australia and the One hundred and twenty-ninth Degree 'of East Longitude, reckoning from the Meridian of Greenwich: And whereas by the last-recited 'Act of Parliament Provision was made respecting the Exercise by Her Majesty of the Power given 'Her by the said Bill of altering the Northern Boundary of New South Wales and it was declared that 'it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent to be from Time to Time issued under the 'Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to erect into a separate Colony 'or Colonies any Territories which might be separated from New South Wales by such Alteration 'as aforesaid of the Northern Boundary thereof, and in and by such Letters Patent or by Order in 'Council to make Provision for the Government of any such Colony, and for the Establishment of a 'Legislature therein in manner as nearly resembling the Form of Government and Legislature which 'should be at such Time established in New South Wales as the Circumstances of such Colony would 'allow, and that full Power should be given in and by such Letters Patent or Order in Council to the 'Legislature of the said Colony to make further Provision in that Behalf: And whereas in virtue of the 'Powers herein-before set forth Her Majesty did, by certain Letters Patent bearing Date the Sixth Day 'of June in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, separate certain Territories therein 'mentioned from the Colony of New South Wales, and did erect the said Territories into a separate 'Colony under the Name of Queensland, and did also, by a certain Order in Council, also bearing Date 'the said Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, make Provision for the 'Government of the said Colony of Queensland, and for the Establishment of a Legislature therein, 'but the Form of Government and Legislature so established did not in all respects resemble the Form 'of Government and Legislature at that Time established in New South Wales: And whereas Doubts 'are entertained whether the Powers intended to be conferred upon the said Government and Legislature 'by the said Order in Council, and the Acts done by them, may not be invalid by reason of such Want 'of Resemblance as aforesaid: And whereas Doubts are also entertained whether it is competent to Her 'Majesty by Letters Patent to annex to any existing Colony any Part of New South Wales which may 'be detached therefrom, or to detach from New South Wales that Portion thereof which lies between the 'Western Boundary of South Australia and the One hundred and twenty-ninth Degree of East 'Longitude: And whereas it is expedient to set at rest all such Doubts as aforesaid, and also to detach 'from New South Wales the last-mentioned Portion thereof, and to annex the same to South Australia:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Certain Territories detached from New South Wales and annexed to South Australia.

1. So much of the Colony of New South Wales, being to the South of the Twenty-sixth Degree of South Latitude, as lies between the Western Boundary of South Australia and the One hundred and twenty-ninth Degree of East Longitude, shall be and the same is hereby detached from the Colony of New South Wales and annexed to the Colony of South Australia, and shall for all Purposes whatever be deemed to be Part of the said last-mentioned Colony from the Day on which this Act of Parliament shall be proclaimed therein.

Power to annex to existing Colonies Territories now Part of New South Wales.

2. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty by such Letters Patent as aforesaid to annex to any Colony which is now or may hereafter be established on the Continent of Australia any Territories which, in exercise of the Powers herein-before mentioned, might have been erected into a separate Colony: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in such Letters Patent to reserve such Powers of revoking or altering the same as to Her Majesty shall seem fit, or to declare the Period during which such Letters Patent shall remain in force; and also on the Revocation or other Determination of such Letters Patent again to exercise, in respect of the Territories referred to therein or any Part thereof, all such Powers and Authority as might have been exercised if the said Letters Patent had never been made.

Provisions of Letters Patent of 6th June 1859, &c. valid.

3. All the Provisions made in the afore-mentioned Letters Patent and Order in Council of the said Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, for establishing the Colony of Queensland, and for the Government of the said Colony, and for the Establishment of a Legislature therein, shall be and

and be deemed to have been valid and effectual for all Purposes whatever, and all Acts and Proceedings of the said Government and Legislature shall be and be deemed to have been from the Date of the said Order in Council of the same Force and Effect as if the last-mentioned Order in Council had been in all respects valid and free from Doubt.

18 & 19 Vict. c. 54. s. 7. repealed.

4. 'And whereas in the event of any Territories being hereafter separated from New South Wales 'and erected into a separate Colony, it may not be expedient that the Form of the Government and 'Legislature to be established in the said Colony should depend upon the Form of Government and 'Legislature which may, at the Time of such Separation, be established in New South Wales:' Be it enacted as follows:

So much of the secondly herein recited Act of Parliament as requires that the Government and Legislature of any Colony so erected as aforesaid shall, as nearly as the Circumstances of the said Colony shall allow, resemble the Form of Government and Legislature which shall be at such Time established in New South Wales, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Provision for determining Boundaries.

5. 'Whereas the Boundaries of certain of Her Majesty's Colonies on the Continent of Australia may 'be found to have been imperfectly or inconveniently defined, and it may be expedient, from Time to 'Time, to determine or alter such Boundaries:' Be it therefore further enacted, as follows:

It shall be lawful from Time to Time for the Governors of any contiguous Colonies on the said Continent, with the Advice of their respective Executive Councils, by any Instrument under their joint Hands and Seals, to determine or alter the common Boundary of such Colonies; and the Boundary described in any such Instrument shall be deemed to be, within the Limits there laid down, the true Boundary of said Colonies, so soon as Her Majesty's Approval of such Instrument shall have been proclaimed in either of such Colonies by the Governor thereof.

Providing Mode of apportioning Public Debt in the event of any Territory being separated from any Australian Colony.

6. In the event of any Territory being hereafter separated from any Australian Colony, and either erected into a separate Colony or annexed to any other Colony, if the Governor of the Colony to which such Territory belonged before Separation, or the Governor of the Colony to which it shall belong or which it may constitute after Separation, shall represent to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that a Question has arisen between the Governments of the Two Colonies as to the Proportions in which the Public Debt of the Colony from which such Territory has been separated should be borne by the Two Colonies respectively after Separation, or as to the Division of the Public Monies in the Treasury of such first-mentioned Colony at the Time of Separation, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, through One of Her Principal Secretaries of State, to require the Governors of the Two Colonies, with the Advice of their respective Executive Councils, each to appoint a Commissioner, and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to appoint a Third Commissioner, not being a Resident in or employed in the Public Service of either Colony, and to fix the Time and Place of the First Meeting of the Commissioners, and such Commissioners shall determine the Proportion in which such Monies or Debt shall be divided between the Two Colonies; and the Award of such Commissioners, or of any Two of them, when confirmed by Her Majesty in Council, shall be final and conclusive against both Colonies: Provided always, that nothing herein contained, and no Award as aforesaid, shall in any way prejudice or affect the Security of any Debentures which may have been issued before the Separation of any Territory by the Government of the Colony from which such Territory may be separated, or the absolute Right and Claim of the Holders thereof to demand and receive Payment of the Amounts thereby respectively purporting to be secured, as well out of the Revenues of the Colony from which such Territory has been separated as out of the Revenues of the Colony to which such Territory shall belong or which it may constitute.

16. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the Right of any Creditor who may have advanced Monies either wholly or partially on the Security of any Differential Dues, or of any Payments out of the Public Monies made by way of Compensation for Differential Dues; but if the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury make any Payment to such Creditor in respect of such Compensation the Sum so paid shall be deemed to be a Debt due to the Crown from the Persons or Body to whom the Creditor made the Advance in respect of which the Payment is made, and shall be recoverable accordingly.

CAP. LXX.

An Act for regulating the Use of Locomotives on Turnpike and other Roads, and the Tolls to be levied on such Locomotives and on the Waggons and Carriages drawn or propelled by the same. [1st August 1861.]

'WHEREAS the Use of Locomotives is likely to become common on Turnpike and other Roads: 'And whereas the General Turnpike and Highway Acts and many of the Local Turnpike Acts 'do not contain any Provisions for regulating the Use of Locomotives on the Roads to which they 'respectively apply, nor do they authorize the levying of Tolls upon or in respect of any Locomotive 'using the Roads, or upon or in respect of any Waggon or Carriage drawn by Locomotives: And 'whereas under and by virtue of certain Local Turnpike Acts Tolls may be levied upon Locomotives 'and other Engines drawing or propelling Waggons or Carriages, or upon the Waggons or Carriages 'so drawn or propelled, which are or may be prohibitory of the Use of Locomotives on the Roads to 'which the said Acts respectively apply: And whereas the Weighing Clauses in the General Turnpike 'Acts have not been framed in anticipation of Traffic by Locomotives, and are in many respects ill 'adapted to the profitable carrying of Goods, or to the levying of just and adequate Tolls upon Waggons 'or Carriages drawn by Locomotives: And whereas it is desirable that the Use of Locomotives on 'Turnpike and other Roads should be regulated by uniform general Provisions, and that Tolls should 'be levied upon such Locomotives and the Waggons or Carriages drawn by such Locomotives upon 'Turnpike Roads:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Scale of Tolls to be taken after passing of this Act.

1. From and after the passing of this Act, all Trustees, Corporations, Commissioners, and other Persons acting under and in execution of any existing General or Local Turnpike Road Act or Public Bridge Act shall demand and take Tolls not exceeding the Tolls following; that is to say,

For every Locomotive propelled by any Power, containing within itself the Machinery for its own Propulsion, such a Toll for every Two Tons Weight or fractional Part of every Two Tons Weight that such Locomotive shall weigh as shall be equal to the Toll or Tolls by their respective Acts made payable for every Horse drawing any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage with Wheels of a Width similar to those of such Locomotive; or in the Case of a Toll by any such Act made payable being charged on the Horse or Horses drawing any such Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, without reference to the Width of the Wheels thereof, then such a Toll for every Two Tons or fractional Part thereof that such Locomotive shall weigh as shall be equal to One Horse drawing such Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage; which Tolls respectively shall be payable so often as Tolls made payable as aforesaid for such Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage shall be payable at the same Gate: Provided always, that if the Wheels of such Locomotive shall rest upon any Shoe or other Bearing the Surface of which shall bear upon the Ground so as to prevent the Wheels coming in contact therewith, such and the same Tolls only shall be demanded and payable as if the Wheels thereof were of a Width similar to such Shoe or Bearing:

For every Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage drawn or propelled by any Locomotive, for each Pair of Wheels thereof such a Toll as shall not exceed the Toll by their respective Acts made payable for Two Horses drawing any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage with Wheels of a similar Width, and for every additional Wheel thereof One Half Toll in addition to the said Toll; or in the Case of a Toll by any such Act made payable being charged on the Horse or Horses drawing any such Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, without reference to the Width of the Wheels thereof, then such a Toll for each Wheel as shall be equal to One Horse drawing such Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage; which said Toll or Tolls shall be payable so often as the Toll made payable as aforesaid for such Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage drawn by Horses shall be payable at the same Gate:

Provided always, that in every Case where the Wheels of any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage shall not all be cylindrical, as described in the Act of the Third Year of George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-six, Section Nine, the Toll payable in respect thereof shall be One Half more.

Repeal of former Enactments as to Tolls to be taken for Locomotives.

2. All Clauses and Provisions in any Local or General Turnpike Road Act or public Bridge Act authorizing Tolls to be demanded or taken upon Locomotives or Carriages drawn by Steam or any other than Animal Power, different to the Tolls herein provided for, shall, so far as the same relate to such Tolls, be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not be deemed or construed to extend to any Tolls authorized to be taken in respect of any private Roads or private Bridges, or to the Roads comprised in "The Commercial Roads Continuation Act, 1849."

Every Locomotive propelled by Steam or any other than Animal Power, not drawing any Carriage, and not exceeding in Weight Three Tons, shall have the Tires of the Wheels thereof not less than Three Inches in Width, and for every Ton or fractional Part thereof additional Weight the Tires of the Wheels thereof shall be increased One Inch in Width; and every Locomotive drawing any Waggon or Carriage shall have the Tires of the Wheels thereof not less than Nine Inches in Width; but no Locomotive shall exceed Seven Feet in Width or Twelve Tons in Weight, except as hereinafter provided; and the Wheels of every Locomotive shall be cylindrical and smooth soled, or used with with Shoes or other bearing Surface of a Width not less than Nine Inches; and the Owner or Owners of any Locomotive used contrary to the foregoing Provisions shall for every such Offence, on summary Conviction, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds: Provided always, that whereas it may be desirable that Locomotives of a greater Width than Seven Feet and of a greater Weight than Twelve Tons should be allowed to be used under certain Circumstances, any Person desiring to use any such Locomotive on any Street or public Highway within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, or within the Limits of the Metropolis as defined by the Act of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her present Majesty, for the better Local Management of the Metropolis, or within any other City or Municipal or Parliamentary Borough, or on any Turnpike Road or other public Highway, shall apply within the City of London to the Lord Mayor for the Time being, or within any Municipal or Parliamentary Borough in Scotland to the Lord Provost or other Chief Magistrate thereof, and in other Places to the Corporation, Commissioner, Trustees, and Surveyors, or other Persons having the Charge of any such Street, Highway, Turnpike, or other Road over which it may be proposed to work such Locomotive, for Permission to use the same; and the said Lord Mayor, the said Lord Provost or Chief Magistrate, or such Corporation, Commissioners, Trustees, Surveyor, and other Persons as aforesaid, shall have Power to authorize such Locomotive to be used on such Road or Roads, or Part of any Road or Roads, and under such Condition or Conditions as to them may appear desirable; but in the Case of the Surveyor or Surveyors of any Highway in England no such Permission shall be valid without also it be approved by the Justices acting in Petty Sessions for any Petty Sessional Division within which it is proposed to use such Locomotive.

It shall not be lawful for any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other Carriage so drawn or propelled as aforesaid, not having cylindrical Wheels, to carry any greater Weight than is permitted in such Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage by the General Turnpike Act; and it shall not be lawful for any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other Carriage having cylindrical Wheels to carry, over or above the Weight of the Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, any greater Weight than One Ton and a Half for each Pair of Wheels, unless the Fellies, Tires, or Shoes are Four Inches or more in Breadth; nor to carry a greater Weight than Two Tons for each Pair of Wheels, unless the Fellies, Tires, or Shoes are Six Inches or more in Breadth; nor to carry a greater Weight than Three Tons for each Pair of Wheels, unless the Fellies, Tires, or Shoes are Eight Inches or more in Breadth; and for every single Wheel One Half of that permitted to be carried on a Pair of Wheels; nor in any Case to carry a greater Weight than Four Tons on each Pair of Wheels, or Two Tons on each Wheel; but if such Waggons, Wains, or other Carriages are built and constructed with Springs upon each Axle, then they shall be allowed to carry One Sixth more Weight in addition to the above-mentioned Weights upon each Pair of Wheels: Provided always, that the Regulation of Weight herein mentioned and provided shall not extend to any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other Carriage carrying only One Tree or One Log of Timber, or One Block of Stone, or One Cable or Rope, or One Block, Plate, Roll, or Vessel of Iron or other Metal, or compounded of any Two or more Metals cast, wrought, or united in One Piece.

Power to Secretary of State to prohibit the Use of Locomotives destructive to Highways or dangerous to the Public.

5. In case it appear to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that the Use of any particular Description of Locomotive causes excessive Wear and Tear of the Highways, or is dangerous or inconvenient to the Public, or that the Use of Locomotives generally or of any particular Description of Locomotive is dangerous or inconvenient to the Public in certain Districts or Places, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State from Time to Time, by Order under his Hand, to prohibit the Use of any Kind or Description of Locomotive specified in such Order on any Highway whatsoever, or to prohibit the Use of Locomotives, or any specified Kind or Description thereof, on the Highways within any Place, District, or Limit mentioned in such Order, or otherwise to restrict the Use of Locomotives as Circumstances may appear to him to require, and from Time to Time, by Order made as aforesaid, to revoke or alter any such Order previously made; and every Order made under this Enactment shall be published in the London Gazette, and any Person using any Locomotive contrary to any such Order shall for every such Offence, on summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

23 & 24 Vict. c. 152.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to facilitate internal Communication by means of Tramroads or Tramways: And whereas some of the 'Provisions of the said Act have been found to cause unnecessary Expense and Delay, and it is 'expedient to amend the same:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

This and recited Act to be read together.

1. The said recited Act shall be continued and be in full Force except when the same shall be altered or amended by or be inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, and the recited Act and this Act shall be read together as One Act.

One Approval by Grand Jury to be sufficient.

2. It shall not be necessary for the Grand Jury in future to pronounce a provisional Approval of the Undertaking, but the Grand Jury in proceeding under the Fifth Section of the said recited Act shall definitively approve or disapprove of the said Undertaking at the first Assizes at which the same shall be brought before them, and it shall not be necessary to obtain any further or other Approval from the Grand Jury at any subsequent Assizes.

Applications at Spring or Summer Assizes.

3. The Application of the Grand Jury for their Approval may be made either at the Spring or Summer Assizes.

Notices to be given for Spring Assizes.

4. In case the Application is made at the Spring Assizes, the Advertisements required by the First Section of the said Act shall be published in the Months of November or December or either of them immediately preceding, and the Deposits required by the Second and Fourth Sections of the said Act shall be made on or before the First and Twelfth Day of December respectively, and the Notices required by the Third Section shall be given on or before the Second Day of December.

Approval of Grand Jury may be traversed.

5. Any Person entitled to appear on the Inquiry before the Grand Jury may, in the Case of their Approval of the Undertaking, traverse such Approval, subject to and under the following Regulations:—

Such Traverse shall be entered with the Clerk of the Crown not later than Twelve o'Clock on the Day following the Approval of the Grand Jury;

It shall be on either of the following Grounds:—

First. That the Preliminaries required by Law for the Application to the Grand Jury have not been complied with;

Second. That the Construction of the Undertaking according to the Plan approved of by the Grand Jury would not be beneficial to the Public;

In case of a Traverse on the First Ground, same shall be disposed of by the Judges of Assize, or One of them, after hearing such Evidence as may be adduced;

In case of a Traverse on the Second Ground, same shall be tried in all respects as Issues joined in the Superior Courts of Common Law are or may be triable by Law at such Assizes;

Every Traverse under this Act shall be determined or tried at the same Assizes at which it is entered, and in case the Judge shall rule or the Jury find in favour of such Traverse, as the Case may be, the Approval of the Grand Jury shall be void and of no Effect;

Every Traverse on the First Ground shall be confined to the specific Points mentioned by the Traverser in his Memorial lodged with the Secretary of the Grand Jury, and the particular Points of Non-compliance complained of shall be also stated in such Traverse.

Existing Company may be empowered to execute Work.

8. Instead of constituting a new Company under the Fifteenth Section of the said Act, the Lord Lieutenant in Council may, if he shall so think fit, and if so desired by the Promoters, empower any existing Company incorporated by Act of Parliament or Charter, or constituted by any Statute regulating Joint Stock Companies, to execute such Undertaking, if it shall appear that such Company have Power to provide the necessary Capital and to apply the same to the Purposes of such Undertaking, but no such Order shall be deemed or taken to authorize or sanction the Employment by the said Company for the Purposes of such Undertaking or of the Application for the same of any Funds which independently of such Order they would not have Power so to apply.

9. In any Case in which the Undertaking shall be approved of by the Grand Jury, and no Petition of Appeal shall be presented against such Approval to the Lord Lieutenant in Council by any of the Parties entitled under such Act to appeal, the Order in Council shall immediately take Effect without any Act of Parliament confirming the same, but in any Case in which such Petition of Appeal is presented before the Order in Council is made, such Order shall have no Effect until confirmed by Act of Parliament, even although no Person shall appear to sustain such Appeal, and when any Order shall be made after the Presentation of such Appeal the Fact of such Appeal having been presented shall be stated in such Order.

Grand Jury may give Permission for Tramway to cross a Highway.

2. In all future Parliaments there shall be Two Knights of the Shire to serve for each of the said Northern and Southern Divisions, and such Knights shall be chosen in the same Manner, and by the same Classes or Descriptions of Voters, and in respect of the same Rights of Voting, as if each such Division were a separate County; and all Enactments now in force applicable to Divisions of Counties returning Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament shall apply to the Divisions hereby constituted.

The Court for the Election of Knights of the Shire for the said Northern Division shall be held at Leeds, and the Court for the Election of Knights of the Shire of the said Southern Division shall be held at Wakefield; but the Justices of the Peace for the said West Riding, assembled at any Court of Quarter Sessions not later than the first to be holden after the Dissolution of the present Parliament, shall name the Polling Places for each of the said Northern and Southern Divisions, and divide such Divisions into convenient Districts for polling, and shall assign One of such Districts to every Polling Place named; and a List stating the Polling Places and describing the Districts assigned shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace of the West Riding, who shall forthwith cause Copies of such List to be printed, and shall deliver a Copy of such List to every Person who shall apply for the same, upon Payment of One Shilling for each Copy: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall, as regards the Divisions constituted by this Act, affect the Power of altering from Time to Time Polling Places and Districts contained in the Act of the Session held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and two.

Provision in case of Dissolution before Construction of new Polling District.

4. In case of a Dissolution of the present Parliament, and a new Election taking place before the Justices have named such Polling Places and assigned such Polling Districts as aforesaid, the Places then by Law appointed for taking the Poll for Elections of Knights of the Shire for the West Riding of York, which are situate in the respective Divisions constituted by this Act, shall be the Places for taking the Poll at such Election for the Election of Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament for the respective Divisions constituted as aforesaid, and the Districts assigned to such Polling Places shall be deemed to continue for the Purposes of such Election, subject to this Qualification: that if a Portion of any District assigned to any Polling Place is situate in a different Division from the Polling Place, the Sheriff shall, in his Proclamation of the Place and Time at which the Election of Members for either Division is to be held, declare at what Polling Place or Polling Places the Voters of any Parish or Township situate in such outlying Portion are to vote.

Additional Member for Southern Division of Lancashire.

Provision as to such Borough in case of a Dissolution before its Register is in force.

CAP. CXVI.

An Act for the Appropriation in favour of the Military Knights and the Churches of Windsor of Two of the Canonries suspended in the Chapel of Windsor, and for making certain Provisions respecting the Naval Knights of Windsor. [6th August 1861.]

'WHEREAS a College or Society consisting of a Warden, Canons, Priests, Alms Knights, and other Officers was founded by King Edward the Third within the Chapel of Windsor, and in connexion with the Order of the Garter, under the Title of the Warden and College of the Free Chapel of Saint George within the Castle of Windsor, and Provision was made for the Maintenance of all the Members of the said College out of the Goods and Possessions with which the said Chapel was endowed: And whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty-second Year of King Edward the Fourth, after reciting that the Possessions of the said College were insufficient to sustain the other Charges and also to bear the Charges of the same Knights, (in consideration whereof His said Majesty King Edward the Fourth had for the said Knights otherwise provided,) the said Knights were excluded from the said College, and the said Warden and Canons, who were thereby incorporated by the Title of the "Dean and Canons," were discharged from the Charge of maintaining the said Knights: And whereas no permanent Provision was made for the said Knights by King Edward the Fourth; but subsequently thereto, and in the First Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, Trusts were created of certain Lands then vested in the said Dean and Canons by virtue of a Conveyance thereof previously made, and by the Indenture creating such Trusts, after estimating the annual Value of such Lands at Six hundred and sixty-one Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence, and stating it to have been the Intention of the Crown to whom the said Lands belonged to make by the First Conveyance a special Foundation and Continuance of the said Knights, it was declared that Four hundred and thirty Pounds, Part of the Income of the said Lands, should be appropriated, amongst other things, to the Payment of Twelvepence per Day for the Maintenance of the said Knights, and to providing them with certain Liveries, to the Intent that they might make a decent Appearance before their Sovereign, while the Dean and Canons were authorized to apply to their own Use the Residue of the said Income, amounting to Two hundred and thirty-one Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence: And whereas the annual Income of the said Land has increased from the said Sum of Six hundred and sixty-one Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence to about Fourteen thousand Pounds, but no Increase has been made in the Sums allowed to the said Knights: And whereas in pursuance of divers Acts of Parliament Eight Canonries in the said Collegiate Chapel of Saint George are suspended, and One Fourteenth Part of the whole Monies of the said Chapel are paid in respect of each suspended Canonry to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and carried over by them to their Common Fund: And whereas it is expedient that there should be made out of the Revenues of the suspended Canonries such Augmentation of the Salaries of the said Knights as would appear to be just, having regard to the Difference that has occurred in the Value of Money and in the annual Income of the said Lands since the Trusts were created, apportioning such Income in manner herein-before mentioned: And whereas the Town of Windsor is very populous, and insufficient Means are provided for the Cure of Souls therein; and it is expedient that out of other Part of the Revenues of the said suspended Canonries an Addition should be made to the Endowments of the Churches in Windsor:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Appropriation of Profits of Seventh Canonry to Military Knights.

1. The Dean and Canons of Windsor shall henceforth retain all such Share of divisible Revenues as would if this Act had not passed have been payable to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in respect of the Canonry seventhly suspended under the Acts herein-before in that Behalf mentioned, and shall apply the same for the Benefit of the Military Knights on the Upper or Royal Foundation of the Castle at Windsor, in such Manner as Her Majesty may by Warrant under Her Sign Manual direct.

Appropriation of Profits of Eighth Canonry to Incumbent of Churches.

2. The said Dean and Canons shall likewise retain all such Share of divisible Revenues as would if this Act had not passed have been payable to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in respect of the Canonry eighthly suspended under the Act herein-before in that Behalf mentioned, and shall apply the same as follows; that is to say, shall pay Three Fifths thereof to the Vicar for the Time being of the Royal Borough

Borough of Windsor, and the remaining Two Fifths to the Perpetual Curate of the District Church of the Holy Trinity in Windsor, in augmentation of their respective Benefices.

Mode of ascertaining Amount of Payments to be retained.

3. The Amount of the Share of divisible Revenues to be retained by the said Dean and Canons for the Purposes of this Act in respect of each of the said Canonries seventhly and eighthly suspended shall equal the Amount paid by them to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in respect of each of the Six other suspended Canonries, and the Acceptance of such last-mentioned Amount by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be conclusively binding on the Parties beneficially interested under this Act in the Proceeds of the said seventhly and eighthly suspended Canonries.

Lieutenants succeeding to Rank of Retired Commander shall continue Poor Knights.
